By Government Order No.16139/4525 dated 1-4-1898 a "Personal Clerk", with the rank of a Deputy Amildar, was sanctioned ~~to~~ for each Councillor, and in July 1899 this designation was changed into "Personal Assistant" and the officers holding these appointments were directed to be ranked with Amildars on reaching the maximum pay of their - Grade 100-25-150. The appointments made under - neither of these orders were Gazetted.

2. According to the order in force an officer already in service appointed as Personal Assistant to a Councillor is to get a local allowance of Rs. 50, while so employed, in addition to the salary he would, but for such appointment, be entitled to, and revert to his original appointment whenever this special appointment ceases. The appointments of Personal Assistants to Members of Council are thus treated as temporary terminating as soon as the services of the particular incumbents in that capacity are not required and accordingly no definite status in the Public Service is assigned to them now.

3. In these circumstances it is a matter for consideration whether the appointments in question need be Gazetted.

4 Under the rules at present in force any gift whatever could have been taken after the election of the member and he gets an allowance of Rs 50 p.m. during the period he is doing duty as Pl. Local member of Council. Thus after the sanding of the list Arthur Long temporary & the Collector have not been authorised to add after the period when there was no meaning to gazette the addt. The however was a gazetted officer whose addt had always been gazetted Cf. Ramchandra Dy Sundar when his transfer as Asst Collr to a member of the council be gazetted. In the case of others whose names for the duty there seems to be no meaning for gazetting them, though there has been exception in gazetting their addts

5. A reference is invited to the 'confidential' file of papers which explains the reasons that led to the order of the 26th Feb 1912. The idea is, that as far as possible the Gentlemen selected for such appointments should not be allowed to derive any unjustifiable advantage over officials already in service when the appointment ceases. To raise the status of the appointment might perhaps interfere with the scope for freedom of choice which is now allowed in the case of such appointments

8. The appointments & transfers of Sub Registrars are notified in the Gazette. There seems to be no objection against notifying in the Gazette the appointments of Personal Assistants to the Members of Council without prejudice to the terms & conditions of their appointments as laid down in the G.O. of 26th Feb 1912.

This question was raised at a Council Meeting. Hence the Note.

12. Under the orders of the 26th February 1912 in force, the terms of the appointment of Personal Assistants to Members of Council are as follow:-

> " An officer already in the service of Government appointed to be Private Secretary to the Dewan or Personal Assistant to a Councillor is, while so employed, entitled to a local allowance of Rs.50 a month in addition to the salary to which he would, but for his appointment as Private Secretary or Personal Assistant, be entitled. Provided that in any case the total emoluments (including the local allowance of Rs.50) of the officer shall not exceed Rs.300 a month in the case of a Private Secretary to the Dewan or Rs.150 in the case of a Personal Assistant to a Councillor: provided, however, that the limit of Rs.300 shall not apply to a permanent Assistant Commissioner or Amildar appointed as Private Secretary to the Dewan or Personal Assistant to the Councillor respectively".

(2.) The question of gazetting these appointments was considered in Council on the 2nd September 1914. The Council are of opinion that the appointments of Personal Assistants to the Members of Council may be notified in the Gazette without prejudice to the terms and conditions of their appointments as laid down in the Government Order of 26th February 1912; and that their names may also be shown in the Civil List as long as they hold the appointments. The First Member has no decided opinion either way on the question.

3. The appointments and transfers of Sub Registrars for instance, who draw much less pay than Personal Assistants to the Members of Council, are notified in the Gazette. The proposal aims at differentiating the responsibility of a Personal Assistant to a Member of Council from that of a clerk and in this manner tends to promote efficiency of the Assistants.

4. In these circumstances, the opinion of the Council may be graciously approved.
